HAWTHORNE RACING.

The track at Hawthorne was much improved in its condition as against that of the other days this week, yet it was deep and holding. The handicap at one mile, set for the third race, was declared off, Burns & Waterhouse scratching their pair, Eddie Jones and Candalaria, the example being followed in the case of Donna Rita by Tony Licalzi. Thus, only Can't Dance and Heigh Ho were left in, and the Hawthorne rule is that four starters and no less constitute a race. The scratching of King Barleycorn in the first race, as also the absence of Winslow in the fourth event, cheapened the card considerably. The weather was beautiful and the usual large crowd enjoyed an afternoon of sport where everything went smoothly.

To a straggling start Canace jumped away in the first race so quickly that in the first sixteenth she opened a gap of five lengths on Stamina, Prince Harry (third) being two lengths farther away. Into the home stretch Canace still led by three lengths, but W. Martin, on Prince Harry, had passed Stamina, and, going clear to the outside fence, he had Dunne's colt on the hard going. Not until the last 150 yards did Prince Harry seem to have a chance of beating Canace, as Martin had been whipping; but stride by stride Prince Harry gained, and when, seventy-five yards from the wire, McNickle went to the whip Canace responded only for an instant, and Prince Harry landed first past the judges. L. Pillott, Jr. ran a strong finish and beat Stamina away off for third money. The others were never in it.

Good Friend made the pace in the next race and led into the home stretch by two open lengths. Newsgatherer was so hot after her when the pair got straightened away that Whitten's filly began to switch her tail. Still, "Skeets" Martin got her on her path and kept her in the lead, even if she was running sideways at the last sixteenth. Soon Good Friend swerved to the outside and before her jockey could pull her back, Newsgatherer, under punishment, passed by and won the race in a hard drive. Governor Sheehan was never within five lengths of Newsgatherer and he just lasted long enough to beat Redskin for the third money.

Elidad led around the first turn La Princesa attending, but Collins soon went to Elidad's head and the pair raced alongside until at the middle of the upper turn Collins quit and the favorite turned the last corner well in the lead. Thorpe, however, failed to go to the path on the outside and Treachery, who has come from fifth position in the last furlong, was steered to the hard going by J. Reiff and rapidly gaining ground found Elidad anchored in the mud opposite the betting shed and galloped by, winning as she pleased although she swerved in at the finish. Elidad just beat Vice Regal for the place. The latter had never been worse than third. Collins finished fourth. The others were beaten off.

Nivoce varied the monotony of a day given to the winning of second choices by taking his time and romping home. Off in front, Thorpe took the favorite back, so that Revenge Dare and Friskal headed him for three-eighths, where the last named (backed from 60 down to 25 to 1) was done, and Astor for a moment showed third. Nivoce came on at the turn for home, cut in behind, and ran home in the center of the track. Revenge Dare was second to the last hundred yards, where he died away (he had just arrived overland from Harlem) and Hosi, coming fast, got the place from King Dance, who beat Golden Rod two lengths. The latter had raced three-eighths in going to the post.

In the first bad start of the day, Fatherland, who had acted badly at the post, was left standing still, while Sun God and Pay The Fiddler might as well have been. Ach, who also delayed the start, shot to the front and won under the whip from Gay Parisienne, always second. Native Son was third at the last turn and stayed in the position. The second and third each carried three pounds over.

Judge Rees scratched Lizzie Cavalier in the second race and notified W. A. McConnell, in whose name the filly was entered, that no more of his entries would be received until proof positive was produced that Charles Richcreek has nothing to do with the McConnell stable of horses. The action was a necessary consequence of a race run at Latonia some years ago wherein the mare Linnette performed so discreditably that the owner, E. T. McConnell, was suspended indefinitely. Charles Richcreek was the trainer of Linnette and he also was suspended indefinitely. Capt. Rees told W. A. McConnell yesterday that he was satisfied that Richcreek is still connected with the McConnell stable. The owner said "no, you are mistaken," whereupon the judge emphatically said, "You will have to make affidavit. I am determined to probe this matter to the bottom." E. T. McConnell has been reinstated. He first sued the Latonia judges for $10,000, then withdrew the suit. Afterwards he raced under injunction. Again he was turned down by the Turf Congress Board of Appeals, but finally by proving that he was not connected with the Linnette race had the ban removed. Charles Richcreek has never been reinstated. Nothing holds over W. A. McConnell.

T. W. Coulter, just back from a trip to New York city, said: "I find Chicago quite good enough for me, but you know that I have lived here five years. Surely I am glad to know Redskin won a race. Any man that could get him to the front is entitled to all the credit, for, as one could see by his race to-day, the old rascal is a bad horse to bet on. No, I didn't bring back any horses—nor any money, for that matter; for I attended the races at Aqueduct and they trimmed me four straight. But then I was told I lost twice by a nose, so, no doubt, I ought to feel satisfied. The average attendance at Aqueduct is about 3,000. Where is the Dutchman (Roller)? Really, I can't say. Up around Canada somewhere, I believe, not doing much good. However, a man nowadays must have good horses or win no races.

An enterprising individual has lately "sprung" an innovation in race track sandwiches. These are cut on call from a fifty pound "hunk" of rare roast beef and sell for ten cents, the buyer filling in with bread at will. Horses stabled at Harlem are walked over to Hawthorne. The distance by the shortest route, i. e. across the prairie, is not over four miles. Still, one hour and forty minutes is the time usually consumed in making the journey.

Marcus Cartwright's three books, by the chances of the lottery assigning them places, were all in a row in the betting ring.

The same 16 regular and two field books were on.

Caldwell uses the Maxwell gate.

Debride was well handled and very lucky and liked the going and closed strong. Vanessa broke last and lost a lot of ground through her jockey's bad work. Tanis ran his race. Headlight was forced into the deep going and shut off. Vigenta dislikes the track.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Work on the Newport track is now almost completed. Several bad spots on the track have been made safe, and the steam roller will be kept busy for several days going over the places recently filled in. The track is now in better shape than ever before, and there should be some very fast races run over it this fall. Secretary Gratz Hanly said the other day that he would give no stable room to any one except owners with good horses ready to race. Applications for stable room are so numerous that it will be necessary to refuse all owners with "skates" and broken down nags the privilege of stabling on the track. Among some of the most prominent owners that have notified Secretary Hanly that they will be at the track with their stables are W. S. Barnes, Oots Brothers, Hardy Durham and J. T. Stewart. There will also be a number of the stables from the east on hand, besides many from Chicago, Windsor, St. Louis and other points.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

It is not so very long ago that to see Simms' name posted as a rider of a horse meant a cut in the odds, for he was as popular with local racegoers as either Maher or Sloan now are. His work during the last month or two, however, has been so poor that his admirers have nearly all deserted him, and at present he rates away down on the list of popular favorites.

When at his best no rider in the country can out-jockey him, but in his present form few care to back his mounts. A change for the better can not come too soon.—New York Journal.

P. J. Sullivan, St. Louis.—Maddalo's time in the race won by him August 10, was 1:55 1/2.

Start fair. Won driving. Crawford was probably best in the going. Hardy C is best in mud, but got a poor ride. Watch him in shorter races. Fenetta wants light weight. La Russe tired badly. Is best on a fast track, but ran well. Withrow, Annette and Slasher had no chance at the start. It was a very bad race by bad horses.
Harry Crawford, place, 3 to 1, show, 8 to 5. Hardy C, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Fenetta, show, 1 to 2.

7922	WHITE PINE	98	2½	6	6	6	6	6	Lilly	John Krepper & Co	60	60	100

Time, 26½, 51½, 1:05, 1:19.

Winner—Br. c. by Harry O'Fallon—Nyleptha.
Post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second and third were also driving. Prince Harry was the best and nicely handled. The colt seemed to loaf the first part of it and Martin was hard at work on him at the half mile ground. When straightened away Martin clearly outran McKickie. The latter seeing Canace was beaten, resorted to foul tactics. He took the filly out and carried Prince Harry with him. Martin made no claim but the judges called McKickie into the stand and cautioned him against such riding. Canace is a quick breaker and opened up a big gap early. She stopped at the end badly though when the pinch came. Stamina, off well, was prominent for about a furlong and then stopped badly. L. Pillott Jr likes a heavy track and ran a fair race. Mizzoura could not untrack himself.
Scratched—King Barleycorn, 108; Silver Tone, 105.
Overweights—Mizzoura, 3 pounds.
Prince Harry, place, 7 to 20. Canace, place, 9 to 20; show, 1 to 5. L. Pillott Jr, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. g. 4, by Enquirer—Bonnie Meade.
Post 1 minute. Start good. Won hand ridden and all out; second driving and swerving. The other two were also under keen pressure. Newsgatherer was extremely lucky to win. At the head of the stretch it seemed to be impossible for him to catch Good Friend. He could not have caught her either had not the filly tried to run out. Passing the paddock gate she swerved and tried to run in there. Martin got her straightened away again quickly and punished her hard the last sixteenth. There was a warm contest for third place. Governor Sheehan and Red-skin raced head and head the last three furlongs. The latter is a very game horse. He pulled up so lame he could hardly walk.
Scratched—Lizzie Cavalier, 105; Abe Furst, 117; Pacemaker, 110.

Winner—B. m. 5, by Hanover—Deceit.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily. It was a terrific drive for the place. Treachery liked the going and simply galloped all the way. As the race was run she was far the best. At no part of the route did she require urging. All little Reiff had to do was to sit still and hold her head up. Elidad is a consistent performer. The track had dried out a good deal since his last performance and this handicapped him to some extent. He was tiring badly at the end, and Vice Regal would have a second place in another stride. The latter was well up all the way and ran a good race. Collins is a rogue and seemed to sulk when he had a winning chance. He also pulled up a trifle lame. The race was a procession almost all the way.
Scratched—Winslow, 106.

Treachery, place, 7 to 10; show, 2 to 5. Elidad, place, 3 to 5; show, 1 to 4. Vice Regal, show, 6 to 1.

Winner—Ch. c. 3, by Dutch Organ—Josie.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second eased at the end after an early drive; third, fourth and fifth were driving hard. Nivoce ran an excellent race. Thorpe got him away well and held the field safe all the way. The colt seemed to like the going and could have won away off had Thorpe so chosen. Hosi is a plodder. He is game, though, and stood a drive the entire route. Ellis' saddle slipped in the stretch. It made no difference, though, as the colt was beaten, but had the place cinched. King Dance, off in the rear division, made up a lot of ground and finished with a rush. Revenge Dare was coughing in the paddock. She showed a lot of speed, but tired early.

Scratched—Kiss Kringle, 110; Jay Bird, 105.

Corrected weights—Astor, 107.

Nivoce, place, 1 to 3. Hosi, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. King Dance, show, 2½ to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Emperor of Norfolk—Merrimac.
Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving and staggering; the next three were driving just as hard. Ellis got Ach off flying and that is what won. The colt is either a quitter or was short. He was wabbling all over at the finish and was tired enough to lie down. The boy used good judgment by not drawing his whip. Gay Parisienne made a strong bid on the turn, but weakened at the end. She was as tired as Ach. Native Son ran a good race. He was used too much early and was stopping at the finish. Doremus finished very strong. Barabbas was played, but ran a poor race.

Scratched—The Dragoon, 103; Mendacious, 100; Cora R., 105.

Overweights—Native Son, 3 pounds; Gay Parisienne, 3.

Corrected weights—Pay the Fiddler, 103.
